

Girls with Grit

Job Description for Part-Time Prevention Education Specialist

Girls with Grit, is an organization whose mission is to help prevent the trafficking of minors for commercial sex through awareness, education, and outreach.

Job Description

Girls with Grit seeks a passionate, dedicated, individual for the part-time Prevention Education Specialist position. The Prevention Education Specialist is primarily responsible for delivering the Not a Number® training program to girls ages 12 – 18. Focus will be given on delivering the prevention program to priority populations including young girls ages in the Foster Care System, Social Services System, Juvenile Justice System and the general population across the greater Austin area.

Desired Experience

Education: Bachelor's degree from an accredited university. Concentrations in education, nonprofit, public health, and social work are a plus.

Qualifications:

- Experience in the nonprofit sector, social services and/or teaching.
- Basic knowledge of human trafficking.
- Demonstrated cultural-competency skills with diverse communities required.
- Competency in basic presentation software platforms (Keynote, PowerPoint, Prezi, etc.) and general computer skills.
- Strong organizational skills to coordinate & execute training and outreach events.
- Proven ability to work as a team-player while maintaining positive working relationships.
- Valid driver's license, auto insurance, and reliable personal transportation.

Additional Qualifications: Must successfully complete Not a Number training program and maintain ongoing continuing education credits. (Cost covered by Girls with Grit.)

Responsibilities

1. Deliver training programs as needed to target audiences and complete necessary exit surveys and paper work to maintain Not a Number licensing.
2. Support execution of Girls with Grit public awareness campaigns.
3. Facilitate Youth Prevention Program and Awareness Programs to girls ages 12- 18 in various settings.
4. Assist Girls with Grit with special projects on an as needed basis and other duties as may be necessary.

Salary Range: $18- $22 per hour.

Girls with Grit is an equal opportunity employer. Benefits are not provided to part-time employees. This is a part-time position requiring flexible hours including evenings and weekends.